

OUR STORY OF THE SHIRT

Is short, much shorter than Tom Hood's song of the shirt. Our story, we venture to say, is the more interesting than Hood's to hundreds, for hundreds are buying our Celebrated Unlaundered Shirt at 68c each. Probably more people bought shirts yesterday than ever in Fort Worth before in one day. To-day we repeat the favor, as favor it is, to get your supply of the best shirt that can be made for the meager price of 68c.

This Shirt Has No Superior at Any Price.

We have in former years sold thousands of dozens at $1 each, as the price will again be after this sale. Come and supply yourselves. Need we say more?

Political Preferences in that Part of the County.

O. W. Bradley, editor of the Arlington Herald, was in the city yesterday on some political business. He was asked by a reporter if he could give the political status of his section of the county. "Well," said Bradley, "I am leaving for Fort Worth. I received a telegram from Representative Swann asking that a canvass of the town for senator be made and to send him the result at once. In an hour's work the following preferences were had: Mills, 53; Childress, 4; Culbertson, 4; Hogg, 1; Mills, 3; anybody to beat Childress, 1.

"Clark is all right—Hogg is not in it—my estimation. A recent poll of my town, however, showed that Hogg had a plurality, but not a majority. But the Clark seems to be sweeping and I think he will have the strongest following."

GENERAL ORDER NO. 11.

Assignments Made in the Sixth Regiment Texas Volunteer Guards.

HEADQUARTERS SIXTH REGIMENT
FORT WORTH, TEX., MARCH 11, 1892.

General Order No. 11.

In pursuance of general orders Nos. 25 and 27, current series, A. G. O., the following assignments are hereby made in the Sixth Regiment to take effect on and after the date hereof:

1. The Colorado Guard, Denison Rifles, Quash Pickets, Gainesville Light Infantry and the Wichita Rifles are hereby assigned to the First Battalion, Lieut.-Col. Irving R. Fisher, commanding.

2. The Gainesville Rifles, Lone Star Zouaves, Amarillo Light Guard, Henrietta Herald and Turner Rifles are hereby assigned to the second battalion, Major Wm. A. Taylor, commanding.

3. Company commanders will immediately report for duty by letter to their respective battalions' commanders.

4. Each battalion commander will immediately, upon receipt of this order, forward to this office for approval, his appointments of one adjutant, with rank of second lieutenant, and one sergeant major for his battalion, as contemplated by general order No. 25, A. G. O.

5. In pursuance of general order No. 27, company commanders will line a special drill in the latter drill in order that the regimental hospital corps during the encampment may consist of intelligent details.

6. The attention of company commanders is hereby directed to general order No. 13, A. G. O., and the following paragraph, which has been added to rule No. 13, State regulations, viz:

"On occasions of ceremony such as parades and reviews and especially at state encampments the dress fatigue uniform will be worn, the helmet, blue blouse, same as worn at present, white duck pants and white gloves." By order of the colonel,

M. S. SWAIN.

Colonel Sixth Regiment T. V. G.

J. O. CURTIS,

Acting First Lieutenant and Adjutant.

SMALL FAILURE.

W. C. Seyfried, the Jeweler, Turns His

Stock Over to a Trustee.

W. C. Seyfried, the jeweler on Main street, between First and Second, made a deed of trust yesterday for the benefit of his creditors. Sam Rosenfield was named as trustee. The liabilities will foot up $2418. The assets are not ascertained, as no inventory of the property has been made. Creditors are divided into two classes, A and B. L. H. Seyfried is the sole creditor in class A to the amount of $500, and the class B creditors number about twenty-three in all, with claims aggregating $2918.

A FINE MACHINE.

A Sixty Dollar Sewing Machine for Only

Twenty-Three Dollars.

SEVEN RIVERS, N. M., Jan. 20, 1892.

Fort Worth Gazette, Fort Worth, Tex.:

DEAR SIRS—We received your premium machine some weeks back, and have given it a fair trial, and find it to be a splendid machine, and as good in every respect as lots of machines that have been sold to our neighbors this year for $60. Wishing you good luck I will close. Yours respectfully,

W. F. COCHRAN.

After a Year's Trial.

CLARENDO, TEX., Feb. 29, 1891.

Mr. Dean reports the sewing machine he received from you about a year ago to be perfectly satisfactory in every respect.

Respectfully,

W. L. COCHRAN,

Deputy Postmaster.

Superior to All Others.

SEYMOUR, TEX., March 1, 1891.

The Democrat Publishing Company, Fort

Worth, Tex.:

GENTLEMEN—Your premium machine was received in due time. I am more than delighted with it. I have used many different machines, and the GAZETTE is the superior to all. My friends who have seen my beautiful machine admire it very much.

Success and long life to THE GAZETTE.

Very respectfully,

Mrs. J. E. FRIDGE.

A GENEROUS RESPONSE

To the Appeal for a Destitute Family in Monday's Gazette.

In Monday's issue of THE GAZETTE an account appeared of the destitute condition of a hard-working widow and her six children on the North Side. The generous responses of the citizens of Fort Worth to this appeal for aid testify more than words can do to the philanthropy and charity of her people. The responses have been so numerous that the good woman and her children are now placed beyond want—at least for the present—and very fortunate it was that the appeal was made before the inclement weather came, which is at present making the prosperous and well-fed citizens here feel the pinch. Before the clock on Monday morning one kind-hearted man, whose name could not be learned, saw the account in THE GAZETTE and, fixing up a supply of necessities, paid a visit to the couple and gladdened the hearts of the inmates. Dick Kitta, the plucky policeman, started out and raised $15 for the family.

Logan & Evans donated shoes. Tom

Wilson gave a stove and another man donated a bedstead and mattress, which were badly needed. County Commissioner Scott had a cord of wood dumped in the yard and likewise sent a generous supply of groceries. A street car driver gave a supply of beef, a chair and a mattress, and the ladies of the Associated Charities were not behind hand in the good work. The sick boy, under the skillful treatment of Dr. Graham, is rapidly recovering his health, but the aged grandmother is now down with pneumonia, and is being treated by a male physician.

Mrs. Evans says she cannot find words expressive enough to thank those who have so kindly aided her in her need, and has many kind words for THE GAZETTE for the unsolicited appeal made in her behalf.

SERIOUS COLLISION.

A Street Car Runs Into a Dairymen's

Wagon, Injuring the Driver.

At about 1:40 yesterday afternoon a car of the Belt line came at the usual rate of speed around the curve at the First Baptist church, and on the track was a covered milk wagon, the driver of which did not see the car or hear the gong, and just at the wrong time came to a full stop, causing the car to crash into the wagon with considerable force, wrecking the wagon and throwing its driver, a man named Bates, under the wreck. The car was stopped and walked a few yards, when he sank down in the street, being seriously wounded. He was taken to a neighboring house and later carried home.
